ENGINEERING & AUTOMOTIVE TRAINING COUNCIL INC.

EATC was formed after the merger of the Automotive and Metals Industry Training Advisory Boards; Dave Hicks EATC Chief Executive Officer will present an information evening on the duties and functions of this new training council as well as how industry support is crucial to the successful implementation of changes to the Automotive Training Package.

It is proposed that the process of gathering information from the relevant industry sectors on changes to reflect actual industry training needs must come from businesses and technicians engaged in those activities.

The IAME supports effective reference networking both nationally as well as locally to ensure a steady flow of relevant information finds its way to our training council.

This is our opportunity to hear first hand how the council will operate together with giving IAME member's a voice for the future.
